Lashly & Baer, P.C. provides sophisticated legal representation in virtually all areas of the law to a broad range of local, regional and national clients. Founded in 1912, our practice includes individual, business, and nonprofit clients who are active in every significant industry and range in size from small start-up enterprises to established national companies. The Firm has a long-standing reputation for excellence. We work hard to preserve that distinction

Rhonda O'Brien practices in the areas of employee compensation and retirement, health and welfare benefits, finance, business transactions and on a wide spectrum of state, local and federal taxation matters. Her clients include tax exempt public institutions, charities and foundations, governmental agencies, banks, manufacturers, physician groups and other health care related entities and businesses organized as corporations, partnerships, and limited liability entities.

Rhonda received her J.D. in 1980 from Southern Illinois University and an L.L.M. Taxation in 1989 from Washington University
